SENIOR MESSAGE

Mr. J. FRANK HILLYARD, Principal

Dear Mr. Hillyard,

We take this opportunity to try to express to you our appreciation for the things you have done for us and for the hours you have invested in our welfare and our future. At this early period in our lives it is difficult for us to realize how numerous the obstacles in our paths have been for with your guidance we have passed them unawares.

We wish you continued success and honestly hope that in the years to come you shall impart to our children the same influence, interest, and concern you have so generously bestowed upon us.

Sincerely,

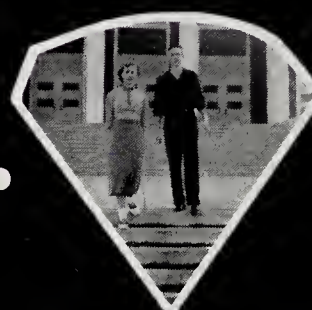

The Senior Class of 1957

SCHOOL LIFE

BROADWAY HIGH SCHOOL

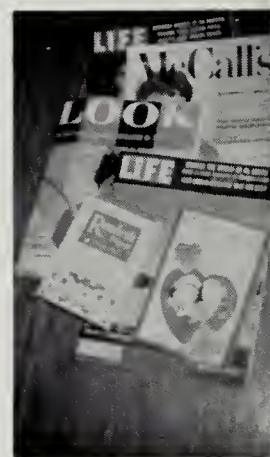

THE DAY was here.
Out came
Old notebooks
Pencils
Brains
That had been Stored since
Last June.

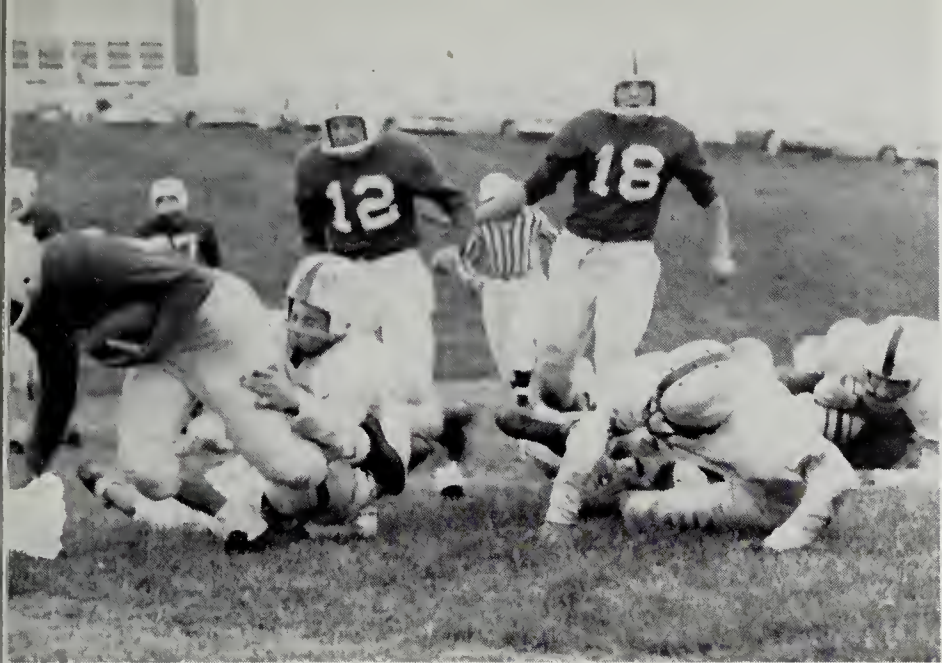

We were ready
To venture forth
Into another
School year,
Under the resolute
Guidance of
Mr. Hillyard
And faculty.

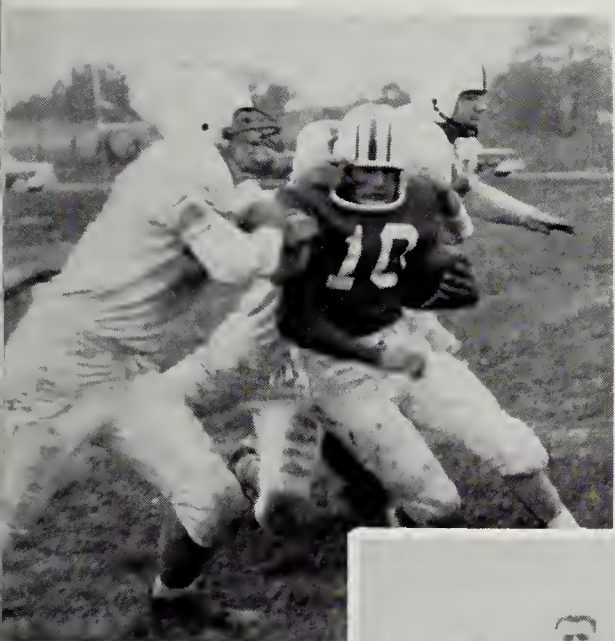

Rental books
Were distributed;
The Magazine Campaign
Launched.

Interest grew
Enthusiasm increased
As we united against
The Common Enemy . . .
Our football opponents.

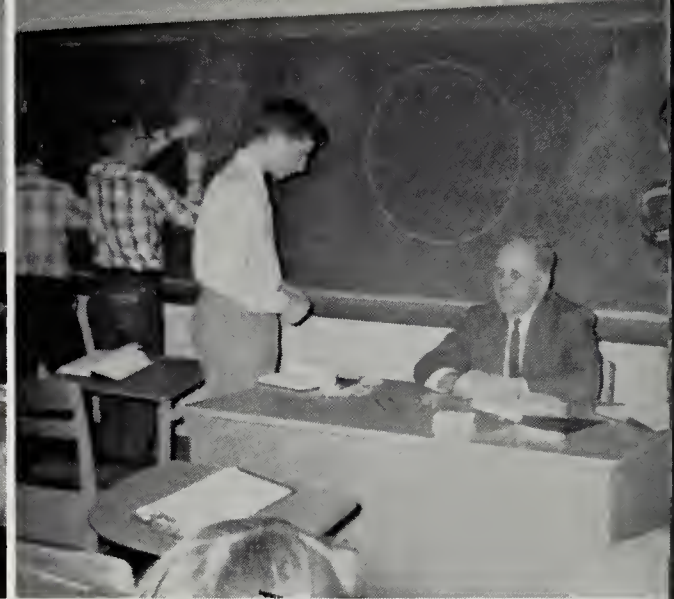

The student body
Rallied behind
The team.
Not only
Was the team
Inspired,
But . . .
Cupid scored a Touchdown!

Through success
And failure
The coach
Team
School
Were loyally
Supported.

But soon B.H.S.
Settled down
To the old routine.

Minds turned Reluctantly from Pleasure to the
More serious things.

Classes were tackled
With renewed vigor,
Each individual hoping to add
Another rung in the ladder
Toward Graduation.

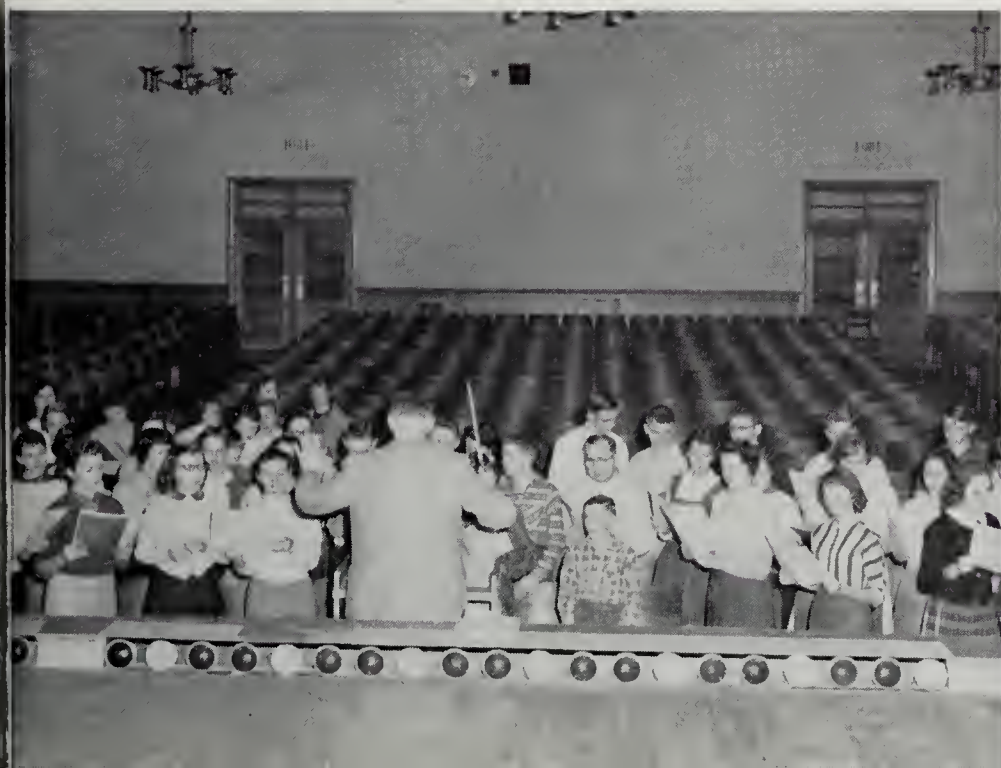

Activities relieved the boredom.
Our future outlook for Scientists
Businessmen
Entertainers
Seemed promising.

Although promising,
Much hard work
Lies ahead.
But with the help
Of our sponsors,
These activities
Will prove
Stepping stones
To our careers.

Nights of hard work
For the Mixed Chorus
Were made manifest
With the successful
Presentation of
THE FORTUNE TELLER.

Eli,
Not to be outdone,
Exhibited its talents
In THE OLD MAN'S MONEY

Class assemblies
Were introduced
With members
Of the student body
Having the opportunity
To participate.

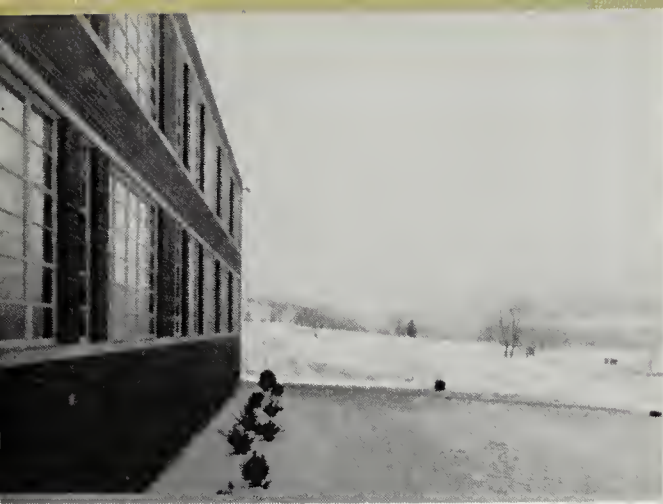

While from the gym
Came the Hollow sound of
Bouncing basketballs,
Echoing shouts
Of the coaches,
Ringing cheers
Of the fans.
Basketball season
Was here.

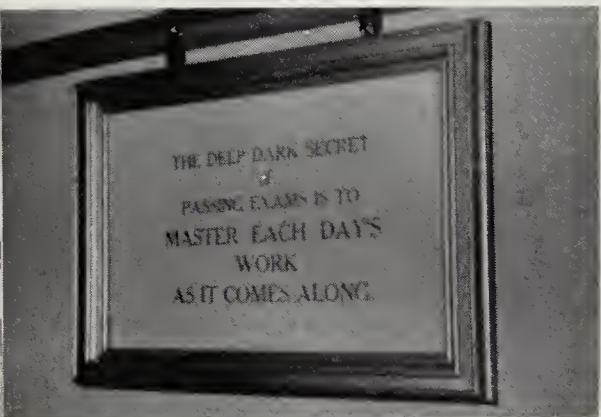

Boys and girls alike
Applied themselves
To the best of
Their abilities.

To our school life
Many new things
Were added.
Things which Gave us
Beauty
Knowledge
Truths.

With the new things
Still remain
The old:
Exams
Report cards
Good grades!
Bad grades!

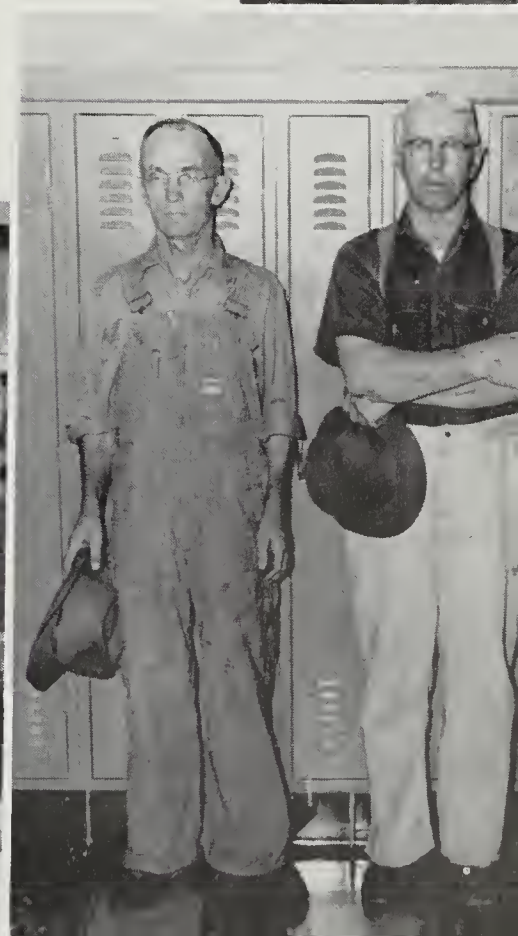

The everyday hustle
Still prevailed.
The sound of the bell
Brought the halls to life,
Students rushing . . .
Some to classes,
Some to more
Pleasant things!

Who can forget
The very thoughtful
People who are
So essential to
Our well-being,
And without whom
Our school would be
Vitaly lacking.

There were
Wonderful times
Not to be Forgotten.

But with the Good times that
Are past,
The greater portion
Of our lives
Lies ahead.
School is only
A step on our Journey through life,
But from B.H.S.
We will Forever retain
MEMORIES.
